INTRODUCING THE NEW GROVES HOSPITAL BUILDING COMMITTEE!

October 25th was the inaugural meeting of the Groves Hospital Building Committee. The general purpose of the Building Committee is to ensure processes are established and monitored throughout the building of the new hospital. The committee consists of various members from the hospital's board, volunteer, foundation and staff. Members include:

- ♦ John Podmore, Chair
- ♦ Paul Smith
- ♦ Jackie Ranahan
- ♦ Diane Wilkinson
- ♦ Dr. Patrick Otto
- ♦ Gord Feniak, Vice-Chair
- ♦ Mayor Joanne Ross-Zuj
- ♦ Jerome Quenneville
- ♦ Robin Gilbert

Staff Resources

- ♦ Stephen Street
- ♦ Marsha Martin
- ♦ Sherri Ferguson,
- ♦ Lori Forbes

CURRENT PLANNING IN PROGRESS

- The existing Groves Hospital Master Plan is being updated.
- We are currently advertising for a Project Manager.
- A "Request for Proposal" for functional Planners and Architects is being prepared.
- Road access to the new hospital site is currently under review.
- A Bobolink bird habitat was previously in the general area of the new hospital building site. The County has investigated and the Ministry of the Environment has confirmed that this is no longer the case.
